TRAVELER GETS SOCIAL SECRETARY REDEEMED BACK

Mrs. Isabel V. Ashcroft Visited by Lawyer and Miss Clemens Gives Warranty Deed of Her Redding Home to Famous Humorist—Instrument Defective by Reason of Absence of Husband's Signature.

PACKING FOR RETURN TO TORRINGTON HOME

(Special to the Farmer.)
Redding, July 22.—There has been a return upon the land record of the town a warranty deed which Mrs. Isabel V. Ashcroft conveyed to Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) the house and dozes or so acres adjacent which she received as a gift from the grantee three years ago. She has received from Mr. Clemens' lawyer a promise that the $4,000 suit, which Mr. Clemens lately brought against her to recover on an alleged indebtedness of $3,500 for money borrowed, would be withdrawn and that she would be further released from all liability arising from financial transactions to which they were parties during the period when she was in his home. Mrs. Ashcroft and general manager of his household affairs. This pledge is so far merely a verbal one, there being no mention of such a consideration in the deed or any other document embodying the condition named. If the attachments placed in connection with the suit are withdrawn, Mrs. Ashcroft will retain her house in Farmington.
Mrs. Ashcroft arrived last Friday at her Redding home which her mother had continued to occupy during the former's brief absence in Europe on her wedding trip. Her husband sailed from Europe on the same day when she was here and she had no idea that any further move in the legal proceedings would be taken until his arrival. The two ladies were therefore greatly surprised when they received a call last Saturday morning from an attorney representing the New York legal firm of John B. Stanchfield & Co. head. The lawyer accompanied by Miss Jean Clemens, a daughter of the plaintiff in the case.
The lawyer proceeded to lay before Mrs. Ashcroft a proposition for a compromise settlement of the suit on the conditions outlined above. He said the terms were liberal and that the matter might just as well be adjusted immediately, as Mr. Clemens was bound to get back the property he had given her.
Mrs. Ashcroft asked for delay, saying she did not wish to give an off-hand decision on a matter of so much importance. The arrival of her husband would be here in a few days. To this the lawyer would not hear, declaring that the terms of the offer were not at once accepted an opportunity to settle

SPAIN ON THE VERGE OF FINANCIAL PANIC

Moroccan Situation Threatens to Involve that Country in War Which Will Mean Her Ruin—Sending of 60,000 Troops for Extended Campaign to Put Down Rebellion Likely to Cause Bankruptcy—Now Under Burden of Debt.

MUTINY OF ENTIRE BATTALION OF SOLDIERS

(Special from United Press.)
Madrid, July 22.—The Moroccan situation as outlined in despatches received here to-day threatens to involve Spain in a financial panic which will mean her ruin. According to the War department's messages the Kabyles and the Rif tribesmen are joining for the attack on the Spanish forces near Alcazar de Selma where General Mariscal is stationed. The situation, the War Department thinks, will demand that 60,000 troops be sent to Morocco for an extended campaign. This, it is generally understood, will bankrupt Spain.
The general apprehension regarding the Moroccan situation has been going on in Spain and the energies of the government have been bent toward building up the resources of the country. The partial success which has attended these efforts is now threatened by the failure through the Moroccan trouble. Public securities have already begun to slump in the market and confidence in the government is waning.
It has been rumored that the Moroccan mission was about to leave Madrid but the State Department officially denies this, saying that the campaign in Morocco is not one of conquest but is for the purpose of supporting the Sultan.
Arrangements are being made by the War Department for the sending of further reinforcements.
Barcelona, July 22.—The rioting in Madrid which marked the first departure of Spanish troops for Melilla was continued here to-day in the shape of a mutiny of an entire battalion of soldiers who were being marched aboard the transport to be sent to the relief of the garrison at Melilla. The soldiers refused to embark on the transports and when their officers tried to force them on board drawn revolvers, the soldiers fixed bayonets on their rifles and threatened to kill their superior officers.
Other troops from the Barcelona garrison were hastily summoned and subdued the mutineers, forcing them to surrender. The Spanish nation is bitterly opposed to the war in Morocco and the soldiers declare their terms of enlistment do not include service in foreign lands.
Madrid, July 22.—At least a dozen people were injured in rioting here early today. Troops had been ordered to go forward to the Melilla garrison. The soldiers gathered around the depot and openly demonstrated against the government for sending the soldiers to foreign duty. The soldiers were compelled to draw their swords and in some cases to use their revolvers.
King Alfonso has cancelled all engagements and is remaining close to his palace to await developments in the African situation. The first line of reserves has been summoned to the border and this has added to the hatred of the people who bitterly oppose the war in Africa. It is probable that General Weyler who once commanded the army in Africa will command the relief that goes to Melilla.

SNOW LIKELY TO FALL ON MAIN STREET TORN UP

Nothing Will, Or Nothing Should be Done, Till Railway's Special Work Arrives.

COMMISSIONER'S ATTITUDE

The Permanent Paving Commission reached the conclusion last night that it could not use the services of Prof. George Jamieson of Yale, to test the road block pavement to be used in Main street, as they cannot be obtained later than August.
President Rogers appeared to believe that work on the Main street paving will not be under way earlier than September. This intelligence seemed to startle Mayor Lee, who said he believed that the grooved rails will be along soon and that the work can be started much sooner.
Mr. Rogers replied: "The commission determined that no part of Main street shall be further torn up until the special work to be laid by the Connecticut Company at junction points is on the ground."
"That will bring winter here before you are through," replied his honor despondently.

SENORITA TERESA TALKED BOSTONENSE TO JUDGE WILDER

With Charming Precision She Tells How $3 Turned Into a Piece of Old Newspaper and Is Excused.

Teressa Delmonte, a senorita from the realms of Porto Rico, limbed too freely yesterday and was before the judge when she gave her ten years in jail and then suspended judgment provided the fair one took the midnight boat from New York. Teresa was once a true Spanish beauty, and although the northern climate had lessened her attractiveness, she was nevertheless striking, both of feature and of figure. This gay bachelorette surprised the court with her excellent command of English. "No, indeed, your honor, it is beyond my imagination to tell just how I came into this predicament. You see, through the courtesy of a bachelorette I was conveyed to the city of Bridgeport, from New York and after landing I met a young man by whom I was requested to drink. You know of course that I did not seek an establishment which caters to the feminine sex, but truly, your honor, I could find no other place where I could get a drink. I was then taken to a place where I was asked to dance. I did so, and then I was asked to have breakfast. The best she could find was a piece of newspaper. Teresa and her Boston account will depart from this city at midnight.

ENORMOUS INCREASE IN GRAND LIST PREDICTED

Effect of Tax Investigation, It Is Said, Will Cause Voluntary Increases in Large Number of Lists—Large Additions Expected to Schedule Furnished by Bridgeport Hydraulic Company.

ADDITIONS MAY REACH $14,000,000

The grand list of 1909 will be the largest in the history of the city. It will be marked by the largest increase that has been found in any year. In the history of the city. The substance of the above statement phases the general opinion of the people in City Hall who as politicians follow the course of municipal events with more interest than others.
This result is predicated to the investigation now being conducted by the council committee on tax equalization, though why it should be called that is a mystery, for the duty of the committee is not to equalize taxes, by which is meant the process of looking over individual holdings to see if each holding is equitably taxed in relation to each other holding. The duty of the committee is to scrutinize the several classes of property to see, if as classes or groups, they are all treated fairly.
The duty of the committee as established by the Council is in fact narrower than is implied in the last statement. It is to particularly inquire if the class of property listed as "dwelling houses" is overtaxed and it is to particularly inquire if the property of public service corporations is under taxed.
To do this it is instructed to investigate the taxation of all property for municipal purposes.
It is a pretty well understood now, that the committee will make a real investigation. The chairman of the committee is Alderman William Thomas, who proved his metal as chairman of the committee on the investigation of the Beardsley Park dam. He can be depended upon to see that the investigation is fearlessly, impartial and suitably conducted. It is assisted by Alderman Griffin, Quinlan, Lynn, W. Wilson, N. S. Jones and Frank J. Hughes. The latter were appointed by Mayor Lee, and the latter is president of the board of assessors.
The belief that the grand list will jump as never before grows out of the knowledge that the investigation already has brought out the fact that millions of dollars of property of certain forms is in existence and untaxed, and that the owners of this property themselves recognize the fact that the discrepancy between the taxed and the real value is too great to endure.
It is generally believed that the Water company will put in a grand list much greater than heretofore. The contract with the city provides for an assessment of $1,000,000 to which is to be added the value from time of any permanent improvements made to the property. These permanent improvements during the last two years have been considerable.
As to the action of the committee in inquiring into the taxation of manufacturing property, the general belief is that the committee cannot avoid this inquiry. The difference between the taxed and the reported value is some $35,000,000. A large amount to escape attention or be winked at, even if the committee were disposed to perform either of those operations, which, judging by the disclosures of the first public meeting of its body it appears not to be. There are many who believe that manufacturing property should not be taxed at its full value. But even these admit that, given the pressure of a council committee with very severe and drastic law requiring full valuation according to law, that there must be a general listing of a much higher listing of the property in question than has hitherto been the case.
This higher listing, it is thought will be a general listing of the property. The new extent is in doubt. There are a few who believe, however, that the increase may be as much as $14,000,000.

SOCIETY WEDDING AT REDDING RIDGE

Bride is Granddaughter of Founder of Sanford Institute.

BRIDAL GOWN FROM PARIS

(Special to the Farmer.)
Redding, July 22.—An assemblage which filled the Episcopal church on the Ridge gathered to-day to witness the nuptials of Frederick D. Mabrey and Miss Helen S. Barnes. It was the most interesting social event of the summer and occasioned a full muster of local society. The wedding was preceded by several incidental auxiliary events, one of them being a "lunch shower" held last Friday at the residence of Mrs. D. S. Sanford. The party, consisting mostly of the younger married set, was given by Mrs. W. H. Jepson and Mrs. Randolph Bradley to invest the proceeds in nuptial and other favors for the bride and groom. The bride-elect, who was the following day the recipient of a "kitchen shower" on the part of another group of friends, was given a "lunch shower" on the part of another group of friends, who were four tables by the good W. H. Jepson, rector of the church. Four resident pupils of the Sanford School in, which institution Miss Barnes has filled occasional engagements as a teacher of French, assisted in seating the guests. The four were Herbert Jepson, Samuel Osborn, Harold Sanford and Samuel Randall. The bride was given away by her father, Harry Barnes of North Sutton, N. H. Her gown was a masterpiece of creation which she obtained in Paris on her recent trip abroad, and she wore a veil. The gown was of white French organdie, cut on train, and was hand embroidered and profusely trimmed with real lace insertion. Mrs. Olivia Sanford presided at the organ and in connection with the ceremony played the Lohengrin wedding march, "Oh, Promise Me," and Mendelssohn's wedding march.
Following the church came a reception for the relatives and a few intimate friends was held at the residence of Miss J. Belle Sanford, aunt of the bride, where she has lived since childhood. Naturally members of the Sanford family constituted the majority of the reception guests. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Daniel Sanford, founder of the Redding Institute, and one of whose brothers was the late Henry Sanford of Bridgeport. The groom's family was represented by his parents, a brother, a sister and an aunt, all residents of North Sutton. The bride's family was many and valuable. Mr. and Mrs. Mabrey departed during the afternoon for a wedding journey the itinerary of which they kept strictly to themselves.

WOMAN ARRESTED CARRYING ON WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

(Special from United Press.)
New York, July 22.—New York police are to-day awaiting further news from the steamer Alliance on which Helen Spencer is being brought back to New York from Panama. The charge of conducting a big white slave traffic between New York and the canal zone has been brought about by the story told by girls giving their names as June Patterson, Mary Jerome and Marie Nevers.
